Fezela calls on all members to participate in the organising of at least one of its events during the season. This is to ensure that we as a club can provide WELL ORGANISED races and secure the same events for the next season. Your co-operation is requested and we will keep record.

Membership is subject to approval by the Committee. Accepted applications are bound by the Fezela Constitution, as amended - April 2003. Rejected applications will receive a full refund. The Fezela Committee reserves the right to check membership status from transferring clubs.

I, the undersigned, agree to abide by the Fezela Constitution and uphold the Code of Conduct. I further undertake to comply with all rules, regulations and directions applicable to the sport of canoeing and acknowledge that the South African Canoe Federation, it's affiliated unions and clubs, the KwaZulu-Natal Canoe Union, it's affiliated clubs, servants or agents accept no responsibility for my death, or injury, or illness sustained by me; or for any loss, damage to, or theft of property arising from the activity in which I participate, however caused.

CODE OF CONDUCT

All bona fide individual members agree on signing the FCC Application for Membership Form (Schedule I) that:

1. this Code of Conduct is an annexure of the Constitution of Fezela Canoe Club ("FCC"), by which provisions the individual members are bound.
2. to ensure and maintain the highest level of professionalism in the sport, they will be bound by this Code of Conduct ("the Code") whether in or out of administration, competition or officiating, within or outside the borders of the Republic of South Africa, whether as an amateur or a professional, or at any time whatsoever whilst in membership with FCC.
3. they will conduct themselves in a proper and professional manner, so as not to bring anyone, including the individual member, the Republic of South Africa, FCC, the KNCU, sponsors, or any entity associated with the sport, into disrepute or censure, and at all times the member will act in the interests of the sport in accordance with the directives of FCC and the KNCU, where applicable.
4. they will conduct themselves in such manner which will ensure optimal fitness, health and performance in order and to perform to their best ability at all times.
5. they will not take any prohibited or banned substance as determined by ICFIC and/or the KNCU, CSA, International Olympic Committee ("IOC"), or any organiser, and in this regard, confirm that any such transgression, whether intentional, negligent or innocent, constitutes a breach of this Code of Conduct, as a consequence of which the member shall be liable to the appropriate sanction.
6. they agree to undergo such medical or other testing as may reasonably required by KNCU, CSA, ICFIC, IOC, competition organiser, or a duly appointed authority, in order to determine whether the member has transgressed any provision regarding banned or prohibited substances as mentioned above.
7. when selected to represent any team associated with FCC, whether on an international, national, regional or local basis, or the like, will agree to achieve and maintain their optimal fitness and health in order to perform to the best of their ability.
8. they shall at all times make a full declaration to FCC of any factors which may affect their performance due to physical, mental or for any reason whatsoever.
9. they shall comply with the rules and regulations of any event organiser in which the individual members are participating.
10. to comply with the dress code determined by FCC and the KNCU or CSA, including but not limited, to the wearing of the appointed uniform and/or clothing and/or kit for travelling, training and competition and for designated functions, awards, ceremonies, etc.
11. no team member shall wear any clothing, kit, etc, that has not been approved by FCC, KNCU, CSA the sponsor or the event organiser.
- 12. in the case of minors, their parent/s and/or legal guardian/s of any member agree in writing that FCC and/or its duly authorised representatives shall have the authority of in loco parentis to exercise any control over such minor member, in the interests, health and well being of the member, FCC, the sport, other members and any other authorised persons.
13. they will not make, comment, issue, authorise, offer or endorse any public criticism or statement having or designed to have an effect prejudicial to the best interested of the sport, FCC, individual members, other competitors, organisers or any other person or body whatsoever. In this regard members are only permitted to comment about their own personal performances and prospects.
14. whilst as a member of FCC, they will not act as a journalist, contributor to articles, or give interviews to the print or electronic media without having obtained the prior written permission of the FCC Executive.
15. unless authorised by ICFIC and/or its duly authorised representatives, the members shall not smoke, consume alcohol or imbibe any substance banned by ICFIC, IOC, organisers, or any substance declared illegal by any due authority.
16. they will act in accordance with the directions and in the interests of sponsors as approved by FCC and to provide the sponsors with the appropriate exposure whilst a member, or at any time whilst receiving any benefit from such sponsor. In this regard, members agree to, as is reasonably required, appear in advertisements for such sponsors for no remuneration, unless authorised by FCC.
17. they shall not advertise, be associated with, or endorse any product or service which is illegal, immoral, or contrary to the interests of any official sponsors of FCC or its events or competitions and/or any products, services, promotions, commercials, advertisements, or the like which are not sanctioned by FCC.
18. they will use their best endeavours to ensure compliance with this Code of Conduct, acknowledging that adherence hereto is vital to the maintenance and promotion of canoeing as a code governed by CSA in and outside the Republic of South Africa.
19. notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein or in the Constitution, FCC and/or its duly authorised representatives, shall have the power to hold a summary disciplinary enquiry over any member, and to terminate such a member's membership and/or participation in any event, notwithstanding FCC's right to recover any damages suffered by it and/or its sponsors as a result of such termination.
24. Once the individual member has been accepted to represent FCC in any capacity, he/she expressly agrees that FCC shall not, in any circumstances whatsoever, be under any liability whatsoever for any loss, damage or injury of whatsoever kind arising directly from any act, neglect or default on the part of FCC and connected with he or she's membership of the club.

It is incumbent upon members to familiarise themselves with the contents of this Code of Conduct. Failure to do so will in no way constitute or cause any member to be exempt from the provisions of this Code of Conduct. Any breach of any provision of this Code shall be deemed to be a serious offence in terms of the Constitution and, as a consequence will be subject to sanction as provided by the Constitution.

The individual member hereby indemnifies and will at all times hereafter sufficiently indemnify and keep fully indemnified, FCC and its appointed administrators and executive, from all actions, suits, proceedings, claims, demands, costs and expenses whatsoever, which may be taken or made against FCC or incurred or become payable by injury and hereby agree (without obligation upon FCC to do so) that FCC may act as the agent in incurring such expenses, and/or do whatsoever is reasonably necessary for his/her benefit in connection with or arising out of any such loss, damage or injury.

This agreement shall be interpreted in accordance with the Laws of the Republic of South Africa.
